MARINE GARDEN IN MAUI WATERS

Secretary H. Gooding Field of the Hawaii Tuna Club is back from Maui with good news of the fishing off Kihel and also with reports of the discovery of a wonderful marine garden in the submerged crater of the little Molokini, in Kihel waters. He says this is the greatest coral garden anywhere in Hawaii, about 20 acres in extent, and is teeming with fish of kaleidoscopic colors.

F. E. Hughtitt of Auburn, N. Y., has returned after a successful fishing trip and intends to go back with a party soon.

THEFT OF AUTO BRINGS SENTENCE

For stealing Bishop Restarick's Ford car, Joe Correa was sentenced to three years and a half in Oahu prison by Judge Ashford in circuit court this morning and his accomplice, Antonio Pacheco, was given two years and a half.

The young Portuguese men were indicted yesterday afternoon by the grand jury and pleaded guilty this morning.

Another indictment, and the only other case considered yesterday by the grand jury, was that of Isiah Brooks, who killed John Duncan, a negro soldier, last Saturday night. Plea was reserved until Tuesday.

In sentencing the two auto thieves under the new malicious conversion law Judge Ashford scored the defendants for their offense.

"With over 3000 cars on a little island like Oahu," he told them, "it is the easiest thing in the world to steal a car. And furthermore, an auto in the hands of a driver not familiar with it or the road is a grave menace to the public."

Correa got the additional year because it was his second similar offense.

NEITHER OF TWO P. O. CLERKS QUITTING JOB

Postmaster D. H. MacAdams said today that Louis Feary, clerk of the house of representatives, will return to work Monday. It is expected that he will show up for duty tonight, as he has been assigned to the night run and will have charge of the general delivery window.

Nicholas Hoopli, assistant clerk of the house, will continue there until the close of the session, Speaker Holstein having told the postmaster that it would seriously interfere with the work of the house if Hoopli came back to the postoffice as ordered by the postmaster-general in a general order to all postoffices directing clerks absent on leave without pay to report for duty at once because of the present war emergency.

The postmaster and assistant postmaster both said today that neither of the two clerks have resigned from the postoffice so far as they know. It was reported that Hoopli had resigned but Assistant Postmaster Petersen said today the clerk obtained 60 days' sick leave and took the legislative job after going on leave. He was in poor health when he obtained the leave.

The strike of 300 men constructing the Ha Ha Bay Sulphate Pulp company's new plants near Bagatville, Quebec, ended when, upon promises from the provincial police of immunity from arrest, the strikers filed out of the works which they had seized.

MANY WEAPONS DELIVERED OVER

In response to United States Marshal J. J. Smiddy's proclamation calling on all alien enemies of the United States to turn in their arms a flow of weapons is now coming into his office.

Eight were brought in yesterday and many more this morning. The marshal expects a number from the country districts and the other islands by the first of the week.

Although Marshal Smiddy as yet has received no submarines or dirigibles he says almost everything else, including pistols—ancient and modern—rifles, shotguns, and even a sword have come in.

Each weapon is being tagged as it is received and a receipt given the owner for its return when hostilities cease.

Most of the owners have adopted the plan of carefully wrapping their property and tying it in a neat package.

KOREAN IS HELD FOR GROSS CHEAT

Chong Chee Loy, a Korean, was arrested Tuesday night by Capt. McDuffie of the detectives for investigation on suspicion of issuing worthless checks. Last night he was charged with gross cheat and will be given a hearing in police court Tuesday morning.

The Korean did not deal in small figures. McDuffie has two checks written by Chong Chee Loy to Lee Chee, one for $210 on the Bank of Hawaii, and the other for $220 on the First National Bank of Honolulu. Both were returned to Lee Chee for lack of funds.

There is a mysterious story of Chong Chee Loy being part owner of a dissembled ship held by the Matson Navigation Company.

From papers which the Korean had in his possession it is believed he used the alleged part ownership in the airship to obtain money.

The Harlow building at Augusta, Me., was destroyed by fire at a loss of $100,000.

SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET IN JUNE

H. W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, announced today that the annual meeting of the department of public instruction will probably start June 6 and continue for several days.

Unless an election, over which there still seems to be some doubt, comes on June 6 the meeting will undoubtedly be held then. This is a week later than last year.

Applications for commissions for the coming year will be considered and all appointments for the next year will be made. Reappointments, transfers and resignations will be a part of the regular business.

Kinney has mailed a regulation form to every government instructor in the islands which is to be filled out indicating a desire for reappointment or transfer or to resign and reasons for each. Many have returned already and so far, according to Kinney, there is little indication of changes this year.

'DUDE' MILLER'S ORCHESTRA AT HEINIE'S TONIGHT

By special arrangement, "Dude" Miller's orchestra has been engaged to furnish special and dancing music at Heinie's Tavern, "on the beach at Waikiki," this evening.

Miss Evelyn Gilbert will also entertain with special popular songs in her usual clever and pleasing manner. This evening's dinner menu is exceptionally good. Make your reservations early for dinner and come and enjoy yourselves the entire evening.—Adv.
